

A bit of history...

Colorado Discover Ability has partnered with local health care providers from Grand Junction to create two unique and exciting overnight camp experiences for children 6 to 12 years of age.

Camp Freedom is designed to accommodate kids with differing disabilities and medical needs. Our dedicated and enthusiastic volunteers include physical, occupational, speech and recreation therapists as well as physicians and nurses to ensure a safe as well as an enjoyable experience.

Colorado Discover Ability

Our mission is to increase the independence, self-confidence, self-worth and education of people with disabilities through outdoor recreation.

Costs and Other Camp Details

The cost for Camp Freedom is $260. Camp will include meals, lodging, activities and transportation. Financial Assistance is available upon request. Camp Freedom will be held at Big Spruce Camp in Cedaredge.

Given the special and diverse needs of our campers, the ratio of camper to counselor will generally be 1:1 or 2:1. The camp is staffed with volunteers who have a wide range of outdoor expertise and experience working with children who have disabilities. However, parents will be asked to accompany or provide a caretaker for their child if he/she is with severe physical or behavioral needs.

A physician and nurse will be present at each camp to handle any medical needs and assist with medications.
